THE LADIES of the First Unitarian Church,

coul, or negagence of their parents, or from somes incident to the maperforces of human isociety, are growing up to swell the ranks of the dangerous classes? of American cities.

They have rented any furnished suitable rooms in the Foorth ward, rappoyed a leacher, and, are daily receiving children, who, coming rum abodes of poverty, and often worse than poverty, by being surrounded during the day with a Christian atmosphere of kindness and orbearance, and being taught the common elementary branches of ducation, will be saved from great peril, and some of them, it is oppod, become very useful men and women.

orbestatice, and being taught the common elementary brancase deducation, will be asved from great peril, and some of them, it is hoped, become very useful men and women.

Very frequently it is found necessary to supply shoes or other essential zarments, and if the meanacould be obtained it would be desirable to fornish one plain, but sufficient meal per diese during the approaching winter. Being constantly under our supervision—except at night—the chances for imposition are very much lessenced; it is certain, moreover, that nothing can be wasted which gives to children the power to read the Bible and the constitution, or feels and warms them, even though their parents should prove unworthy.

We submit the following considerations to the benevolent:

That it is the duty of all good. Christians and all good citizens to take good care of the young, because nothing can be more dangerous in a republic than the presence of lawless bands of youths.

That there is not sufficient public school accommodation for the post children of Washington—a fact too notorious to need demonstration. And, if there were, still the same necessity would exist for sinang those from danger who, from the poverty or neglect of their parents, would not seek educational advantages:

That it is only by direct effort among the poor, by personal-appeal to them, and personal sacrifice for timen that we can hope to clear our dry of violence and rowlyism; and that a proper Christian call and courage can accomplish this great purpose is fully evidenced in the just and present condition of "The Five Points." in New York.

We have no hesistation, therefore, in asking penuniary aid from all persone disposed to help what seems to us to be so good a mission.

We pledge ourselves to the observance of a rigid economy, and our benefactors may feel assured that every dolfar will go directly to the object, and that none of our funds will be absorbed in payment of salaries to secretarie, clerks, agents, &c. palaries to secretaries, cierks, agents, &c.
Denations will be thankfully received by the treasurer, Mrs. J. F.

Phop. Wood—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was in fact badd. I have used but two half-pin bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think, from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try B. Yours, respectfully,

COSMOPOLITAN ART ASSOCIATION. FIFTH YBAR-NEW FEATURES.

ITS PLAN AND OBJECT: TR PLAN AND GIJECT:

THIS new Art Association, organized June, 1854, is designed to encourage and popularize the fine arts and literature. It is under the supervision of a council of members, whose services are honorary, and who receive no compensation.

To accomplish a truly national object, uniting great public good with private gratification, at small individual expense, in a manner best suited to the wants, habits, and tastes of the people, the directory has adopted the following plan:

Every subscriber of three delfars is a member for the year.

The money thus obtained (after paying necessary expenses) is applied—

The money tous obtained (after paying necessary expenses) is applied.—

Part. To the production of a large and costly steel engraving, a copy of which is turnished to each subscriber.

Second. To the purchase of paintings, sculpture, &c., to be given to subscribers, and to the publishing of the Commopolitan Art Journal, which is also furnished to members gratuitously.

Third. To a free admission for the season to the Eastern (Dossettoor) and Western Art Galeries of the Association.

The great success attending the Association during the past four-years has made it universally popular, wherever its plan and objects are known; cambling, as it does, all classes to make their homes attentive by the aid of sculpture, paintings, literature, &c. Terms of subscription for the current year, ending January 1, 1859, up to which time subscriptions will be received.

Every subscribe of three dollars is entitled to— let. The celebrated steel engraving, "The Vilage Blacksmith. 2d. A copy of the elegantly illustrated Cosmopolitan Art Journ 2d A free season admission to the Eastern and Western Gal f Art.
